Strayed From the Army.

There was a sensation on East Coal street last night. As the story goes, a woman left her husband at home to take care of the children while she attended a meeting of the Salvation Army. Later in the evening it is alleged the husband was informed that his wife was in the lumber yard at the east end of Coal street with another man and another couple. The residents of the vicinity kept their eyes open for several hours expecting to hear the reports of pistol shots, but up to date no sequel to the tale has developed.
